10 ANNIVERSARY

Hillcrest, when it was built, was known by local residents as "The Round School." It was unique in design and completely broke with tradition. The former Jasper Place School Board dared try the unconventional, and the design has met with tremendous success. The students who started classes in September of 1963, though the official opening was March 23, 1964, found the workmen still finishing the school whilst classes progressed.

There have been many joyous occasions, many memorable events: the many gingerbread men burnt in Home Ec., and the many misshapen nut bowls in Industrial Arts. Unfortunately, along with the sweet, we have the bitter. Sad occasions have crept into our short ten year span, the most recent being the passing away of Ron Stefan on March 20, 1974.

To the following members of the staff who have been with us since September, 1963, our thanks, congratulations, and hope for many more happy years here at Hillcrest or elsewhere:

Mr. G. E. Anderson
Miss R. Borden

Miss F. E. Murray
Mrs. J. S. Pilkington

Mr. A. H. Holmberg
Mr. W. R. Horn

Mr. R. J. Robinson

Winter

Winters when the snow comes down,
With no noise it hits the
ground,
Children play althrough the
day,
Building snowmen by the
sleigh,
Now the snow is going
fast,
Seems like winter flew right
past,
Now it's spring, no more
snow,
And even the snowmen have to go.

Debbie Armit 7-4

Black as the night without a star,
Lone as a bird flying afar.
Fast as a streak of lightning on high,
Softly whispering a fearless neigh.

Galloping over hill and plain,
While the howling wind runs through his name.
Strong black hoofs hitting the ground,
Running so quickly; yet not a sound.

Feeling proud and free; as a doe,
But not far away lurks the foe.
Cunning and quiet, watching his prey,
Hiding himself like a mouse in the hay.

Hungrily waiting to make the kill,
Opening wide the gates of hell.
Creeping up like the sun in the morn,
Not even speaking a word of forewarn.

Minutes later the fight has begun,
Wildly screaming; helpless in the sun.
Slowly losing his black shiny coat,
While the enemy continues to cut at his throat.

Blood as red as the royal throne,
Blood as red as sin alone.
Lying dead in the afternoon hour,
Once something beautiful, now something sour.

Marlene Hansen 9-6

Sky

Beautiful, heavenly, immense
Was the sky,
A fantastic feeling spread
As we sighed.
Never a day so hot,
And so free,
In all the books
Of history.
It was 110,
And I'll say it again,
We were stickier
Than a bunch of candy.

For a picture we'd pose,
But got sprayed by a hose,
And the water it felt
Fine and dandy.
Then it all clouded in,
And it seemed like a sin,
For the clouds to cover the sun.
And we thought of the day,
The hot day of play,
And how the rain
Had spoiled our fun.

Laurie Thompson 9-3

My Friend

A darkness stands around her,
As none can understand,
She was enclosed within a wall,
The borders of her land.

Her mind could see most anything,
She after told to me,
As I described the golden sun,
Or the beautiful deep blue sea.

At times that faraway look in her eyes,
Would seem to be right up close,
God's purpose for the blind she sighs,
Is for you to appreciate the most.

President's Message

I think this year has been really great, and I'm sure everyone here at Hillcrest would agree.

I would like to thank the rest of the Booster Club, Mr. Bailey, and the administration for greatly easing the responsibility I took on this year. Without the cooperation of the rest of the students and staff, we would not have had so many activities turn out so well.

On behalf of the Booster Club I hope that the future years at Hillcrest will be as good as mine were, with continuing school spirit and pride in attending Hillcrest.

Editor's Message

While I was privileged to be the editor of this yearbook for 1973 - 74, I had no conception of the varied and complex details which would be involved.

I would personally like to thank Mr. McDonald for his guiding hand and effort, for without him there would be no yearbook.

It has been a unique experience in observing human nature and one I would not have missed.
